A Message From the Administrators...

As we are moving forward in this 2009-2010 school year, there are more adventures and challenges ahead for your child(ren). During the month of March students in grades 3-6 will participate in simulations (mock) of the ELA and Math exams. Teachers and students have been working very hard in preparation for these exams. Your continued encouragement and support as always will assist your child in doing their very best!

The excitement keeps happening at Shaw Avenue School. During Black History month students learned about and honored a wide variety of African Americans. Students read many, many stories that shared inventions, experiences, and history of time past. They also showed their writing skills by creating writing pieces that spoke of their hopes and dreams for the future. In Music, students sang and danced to songs that represented the unique culture as well. Remember to keep reading the "Scoop" for the exciting events and celebrations that will occur during Women's History Month.

Did you know that March 2nd, was the birthday of the world renown children's book author and cartoonist

Dr. Seuss. Some of the primary classes have been listening to his most notable books like The Cat in the Hat and Green Eggs and Ham and many more. Kindergarten classes have enjoyed a special snack of green eggs and ham as well as have worn red and white striped hats.

Can you imagine, how fun it is to be a student at Shaw Ave. while learning to read. It is a special event that is marked with a star, because of a superb author, Dr. Seuss, who was definitely great by far!
